New Vernon, NJ

VOL. 64 NO. 6

June, 2015

Dear Friends,

John D. Caputo is an American philosopher who is the Professor of Religion Emeritus at Syracuse University and Professor of Philosophy Emeritus at Villanova University. In his book, On Religion, he says "the religious sense of life awakens when we lose our bearings and let go, when we find ourselves brought up against something that exceeds our powers, that overpowers us and knocks us off our hinges, something impossible vis-à-vis our limited potencies."

"The religious sense of life kicks in when we are solicited by the voices of the impossible, by the possibility of the impossible, provoked by an unforeseeable and absolute future. Here is a realm where things do not bend to knowledge or our will and we are not calling the shots. We are out of our element. This is God's element, not ours, the element of the impossible, God's realm, or 'Kingdom,' where God rules...Love and hope and faith are the virtues of the impossible, taking the measure of the immeasurable future...The religious sense of life has to do with exposing oneself to the radical uncertainty and the open-endedness of life, with what we are calling the absolute future, which is meaning-giving, salt-giving, risk-taking...Our hearts are restless, astir with the possibility of renewal and rebirth."

"Religion is for lovers," he says. "It's for men and women of passion, for real people with a passion for something, who hope like mad in something, who love something with a love that surpasses understanding."

This summer, your Pastor Nominating Committee will be forming and beginning the process of searching for a new pastor. They will first need to complete a ten-page Mission Information Form that gives a picture of our congregation (size, neighborhood, ethnic composition, average worship attendance, current programs, and so forth). It then asks for essay answers to such questions as:

- What is the congregation's or organization's vision for ministry?
- How do you feel called to reach out to address the emerging needs of your community or constituency?
- How will this position help you to reach your vision and mission goals?

The form will also ask the Church to:

- Provide a description of the characteristics needed by the person who is open to being called to this congregation.

- Provide a list of specific tasks, assignments, and program areas for which this person have responsibility.

How does a church put on a form its own identity as "real people with a passion for something, who hope like mad in something, who love something with a love that surpasses understanding?" and their wish for a pastor with some of these same attributes? I offer these answers:

- 1) It is important that the Mission Information Form convey this passion and hope through language and content.
- 2) There will be times of "uncertainty and the open-endedness" in this process.
- 3) However, the committee of real people in conversation with pastors seeking a call will embody that passion and hope.

And with all things in this process, we can trust that, "We are out of our element. This is God's element, not ours."

Grace and Peace,
Robert Gamble

LEADERSHIP COMPETENCIES

Your input is desired for the selection of our next Pastor. We want you to have a voice. A list of Leadership Competencies has been included on pages 12 through 14 of this edition of The Pipe Organ.

Please take a few moments to read through the characteristics and their definitions and select the 10 that you believe are the most important for our congregation's next Pastor to possess. Some of you may wish to list them in order of importance. That would also be very helpful. We hope that everyone will participate in this way.

MAY SESSION HIGHLIGHTS

The following highlights are from the May 19, 2015 Session Meeting.
The meeting began with Kathy Sheeleigh leading devotions.

Committee Highlights

Youth Education: Confirmation Sunday is May 31, 2015. The second Adult Fellowship Dinner was hosted on May 15. Six women were in attendance. Jeff French cooked with the help of Todd Claytor and Robert Gamble. The youth will wash your car on Sunday, June 6. High School Graduate Sunday is June 7. Don't forget to sign up for the Mission Trip to the Adirondacks from August 2-7.

Cemetery: A plaque was attached to a crematorium plot in the Memorial Garden. The cemetery grounds are neatly landscaped, and maintenance is ongoing. On the Friday before Memorial Day, the Girl Scouts will put flags on Veterans' graves. In July, the back wall of the Memorial Garden will be repaired. Two cemetery plots are currently available. Contact Jonathan Shelby for more information.

Congregational Life: The Annual Church Picnic will be held on June 14 at the Ewigs' home from 4 to 7. Please remember to sign up to bring a side dish or dessert.

Finance: The lease on CME space has been drawn and is awaiting comments. The budgetary breakdown of Phase One of the Capital Campaign was presented.

Administration/Communication: Caroline demonstrated the ease and accessibility of the Church website. Information should be sent to Debbie in order for her to keep it up to date.

Buildings & Grounds: Stabilizing the sanctuary is the most pressing project right now. The Finance Committee is currently preparing a plan to replace the bathroom and the Deacons' kitchenette in the basement. The contract for our prospective basement tenants in Fellowship Hall is almost completed; expected occupancy is on June 1. The area must be cleaned out before that date. Whatever is unclaimed or unwanted will be put in the dumpster that will be in the parking lot as of May 27.

Pastor's Report: There will be a breakfast at 9 am on May 31 for the Confirmands, their mentors, and Session members. The members of the confirmation class are: J.D. Grant, Lauren Shelby, and Peter Travers.

Dr. Gamble will be at Princeton Seminary June 10-12.

Dr. Gamble and Yulia will be taking EMT training over the summer. The classes will be held on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays.

There will be a meeting on June 23 for multiple committees. Dinner will be at 6 pm with meetings to follow at 7. Kathy Sheeleigh offered to supply the food.

On Sunday, May 24, in lieu of a traditional sermon, Robert asked for different people to speak about how God was at work in their lives at particular moments.

Communion will be served on Sunday, June 7, 2015.

The next meeting of Session will be on Tuesday, June 16 at 7 pm.

Dr. Gamble adjourned the meeting with prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Jane Coyle, Clerk of Session

Thank you, Louise Thorpe, for once again planting the urns on the patio at Fellowship Hall. The pink geraniums spent the winter in Louise's greenhouse. They are lovely and are enjoyed by all!

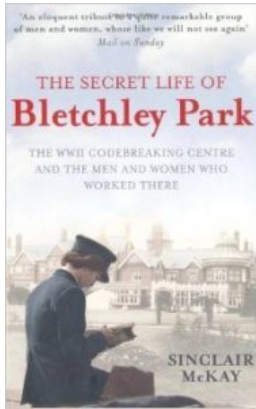

Congratulations to Debbie Hennessey on her graduation, with highest honors, from the College of Saint Elizabeth on May 16. She received her BA in English and Communications. Well done, Debbie! We're proud of you!

We all owe Don Vellekamp a round of applause and our many thanks for the outstanding job he has done in overseeing the restoration project of our beloved church. Thank you, Don!. It couldn't have been done without you!

June Selection: The Secret Life of Bletchly Park...

Tuesday, June 9 at 7:30 pm in the Library

June Selection: The Secret Life of Bletchly Park: The WWII Codebreaking Centre and the Men and Women Who Worked There, by Sinclair McKay

This country house in the Buckinghamshire countryside was home to Britain's most brilliant mathematical brains and the scene of immense advances in technology—indeed, the birth of modern computing. The military codes deciphered there were instrumental in turning both the Battle of the Atlantic and the war in North Africa.

McKay's book is the first history for the general reader of life at Bletchley Park, and an amazing compendium of memories from people who were once its habitants—of skating on the frozen lake in the grounds, of the high jinks at nearby accommodation hostels—and of the implacable secrecy that meant girlfriend and boyfriend working in adjacent huts knew nothing about each other's work. -

PASTOR SEARCH

Over 50 members of the congregation were involved in the first step of the Search Process by meeting in small groups to brainstorm the Strengths, Weaknesses, Threats, and Opportunities facing us at this time as we search for our new Pastor. We want everyone to have a chance to weigh in. The following is a list from the Newton Presbytery of Leadership Competencies. Please select 10 and follow the directions on page 14.

LEADERSHIP COMPETENCIES

THEOLOGICAL/SPIRITUAL INTERPRETER

- Compassion: Having the ability to suffer with others; being motivated by others' pain and is called into action as advocate; is motivated by caring for others while concurrently keeping the organizational goals clearly in focus.
- Preaching and Worship Leadership: Is a consistently effective preacher and worship leader; is able to inspire from the pulpit; communicates a clear and consistent message through sermons that are carefully prepared and artfully delivered; projects the identity and character of the congregation through worship leadership presence.
- Lifelong Learner: Individual who uses every experience in life as a potential tool for growth; one who pursues continuing education; and one who builds on strengths and seek assistance to improve weaknesses.
- Hopeful: Maintains stability in the moment and hope for the future; provides direction, guidance, and faith when describing basic needs; and helps followers to see a way through chaos and complexity.
- Spiritual Maturity: Shows strong personal depth and spiritual grounding; demonstrates integrity by walking the talk and by responding with faithfulness of purpose; is seen by others as trustworthy and authentic; nurtures a rich spiritual life; seeks the wisdom and guidance of appropriate mentors; is able to articulate a clear and consistent theology.
- Teacher: Creates learning environments where students are active participants as individuals and as members of collaborative groups; designs lesson plans that teach concepts, facts, and theology; effectively uses multiple learning tools to reach a wide variety of learners; revises instructional strategies based upon ministry/organization context.

COMMUNICATION

- Communicator: Advances the abilities of individuals and the organizations through active listening supported with meaningful oral and written presentation of information.
- Bilingual: Having the ability to use two languages, especially with equal or nearly equal fluency; able to use multiple languages in communication.
- Public Communicator: Demonstrates a comfortable ease when speaking in a variety of settings (both small and large groups); is effective at addressing a variety of topics; can get messages across with the desired effect.
- Media Communicator: Has experience developing materials for a variety of written or multimedia forms of communications (print, Internet-based, social media, etc.).
- Technologically Savvy: The ability to navigate successfully the world of technology using software, blogging, multi-media, and websites as tools for ministry.

ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP

- Advisor: An individual others turn to for counsel and guidance; provides coaching; expertise for congregations or other organizations.
- Contextualization: The ability to assess accurately the context, environment, history, relationships and uniqueness of a congregation or organization.
- Externally Aware: Identifies and keeps informed of the polity of the church and/or the organization; keeps current with laws, regulations, policies, procedures, trends, and developments both internally and in the larger society.
- Collaboration: Has a natural orientation toward getting people to work together; shares wins and successes; fosters open dialogue; lets people finish and be responsible for their work; creates strong feelings of belonging among group members; is a good judge of talent and can accurately assess the strengths and limitations of others.
- Willingness to Engage Conflict: Steps up to conflicts, seeing them as opportunities; reads situations quickly; good at focused listening; can identify common ground and elicit cooperation from others in crafting mutual solutions.
- Organizational Agility: Is astute about how congregations and/or organizations work; knows how to get things done through formal and informal channels; understands the importance of supporting good policy, practice, and procedure; appreciates the power in the culture of a congregation; is politically savvy.
- Financial Manager: Delivers results by maximizing organizational effectiveness and sustainability through the best use of available financial resources; allocates and manages finances transparently; implements strategies to achieve operational efficiencies and value for money; puts in place rigorous and comprehensive financial accountability systems.
- Risk Taker: Persons with the ability to take appropriate risk to accomplish needed goals; one who thinks outside the box and who is not afraid of challenging the status quo.
- Change Agent: Has the ability to lead the change process successfully, anchoring the change in the congregation's or organization's vision and mission.
- Culturally Proficient: Has solid understanding of the norms, values, and common behaviors of various peoples, including direct experience working in multi-cultural and cross-cultural settings.
- Entrepreneurial: Creative in using resources; identifies opportunities to develop; is willing to take risks, initiates actions that involve a deliberate risk to achieve a recognized benefit or advantage.
- Task Manager: Assures that effective controls are developed and maintained to ensure the integrity of the organization; holds self and others accountable for rules and responsibilities; can be relied upon to ensure that projects within areas of specific responsibility are completed in a timely manner and within budget; and monitors and evaluates plans, focuses on results and measuring attainment of outcomes.
- Decision Making: Makes effective decisions, balancing analysis, wisdom, experience, and judgment; is aware of the long-term implications of choices made; is generally regarded as offering solutions and suggestions that are correct and effective.
- Strategy and Vision: Sees ahead clearly, keeping focused on the larger picture; can anticipate future consequences and trends accurately; is future oriented, casts a compelling and inspired vision for a preferred future; sees possibility; crafts breakthrough strategies.
- Funds Developer: Maintains the ability to solicit donations used to fund the budget of the organization; effectively expresses the needs for funds to potential donors; responsible for adding new potential donors to the organization's contact list; prepares statement of planned activities and enlists support for mission initiatives.

INTERPERSONAL ENGAGEMENT

- Interpersonal Engagement: Displays a consistent ability to build solid relationships of trust and respect inside and outside of the organization; engages people, organizations, and partners in developing goals, executing plans, and delivering results; uses negotiation skills and adaptability to encourage recognition of joint concerns, collaboration, and to influence the success of outcomes.
- Motivator: Creates and sustains an organizational culture that permits others to provide the quality of service essential to high performance. Enables others to acquire the tools and support they need to perform well and influences others toward a spirit of service and meaningful contributions to mission accomplishment.
- Initiative: Demonstrates ambition, is highly motivated; is action-oriented and full of energy for things seen as challenging; seizes opportunity; pushes self and others to achieve desired results.
- Bridge Builder: Possesses responsibility for the unity of the congregation and/or organization; works to connect people of different cultures, worldviews, and theological positions.
- Self-Differentiation: Demonstrates strong and appropriate personal boundaries in relationships; has a healthy appreciation of self, without being egotistical; is emotionally mature; can maintain a calm presence in the midst of turmoil; is not overly dependent upon outside affirmation; works to build a strong personal support system.
- Personal Resilience: Learns from adversity and failure; picks up on the need to change personal, interpersonal, and leadership behaviors; deals well with ambiguity; copes effectively with change; can decide and act without having the total picture; comfortably handles risk and uncertainty; seeks feedback; expresses personal regret when appropriate.
- Flexibility: Adapts behavior and work methods in response to new information, changing conditions, unexpected obstacles, or ambiguity; remains open to new ideas and approaches; and works concurrently on related and conflicting priorities without losing focus or attention.
